PRESENTERS:

Gary D. Layman, CASp
Certified Building Official

Mr. Layman is an ICC certified building official who has performed accessibility surveys and inspections in California and Nevada since 1987. He has been in construction for over 35 years, building inspections/plan review since 1987 and a CA licensed contractor since 1995. He holds a bachelor's degree in Construction Management and a master's in Public Administration. He has represented numerous clients in ADA accessibility litigation as an expert in both state and federal complaints. Mr. Layman is a certified accessibility specialist (CASp) who has performed more than 400 accessibility evaluations of both public accommodations and government facilities. He currently serves as the president of CASI (Certified Accessibility Specialist Institute).

Cris C. Vaughan, CASp
ADA Attorney at Law

Mr. Vaughan is an attorney admitted to practice law in California and Nevada. He is admitted to practice before a number of different United States District Courts in several states as well as the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeal in San Francisco and the United States Supreme Court. He has represented hundreds of clients in ADA accessibility lawsuits in both state and federal court since 2000. His clients have included private and public entity defendants. Mr. Vaughan is a certified accessibility specialist (CASp) who has performed more than 400 accessibility evaluations of both public accommodations and government facilities over the last ten years. He currently serves as the vice president of CASI (Certified Accessibility Specialist Institute).
