  - a) was not willfully negligent or guilty of willful misconduct in the performance of duties to the Institute;

CASI BYLAWS

- b) acted in good faith in what they reasonably believed to be the best interest of the Institute;
  - c) in any matter the subject of a criminal action, suit or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful; and
  - d) in the case of amounts paid in settlement, that such settlement is or was reasonable and in the best interest of the Institute; provided, however, that if at any time any provisions are contained in the laws of the State of California prohibiting indemnification in respect of any claim, action, suit, or proceeding except upon a determination of the extent thereof in the manner provided therein, then indemnification in respect thereof shall be made only in accordance with such provisions.
2. The determination as to a., b., c., and d. in the preceding paragraph may be made by an adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction. All determinations, except those made by such prior adjudications, shall be made:
- a) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of disinterested directors of the Institute (namely directors who are or were not parties to or threatened with any such claim, action, suit or proceeding);
  - b) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if the quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or by the members in like manner to the procedure for amending the Institute bylaws.

In making a determination, the disinterested directors may conclusively rely upon an opinion as to facts or law or both, of independent legal counsel selected by them. The termination of a claim, action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of guilty or of nolocontendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that the, director, officer, or employee was negligent or guilty of misconduct in the performance of duty to the institute.

3. Expenses incurred with respect to any claim, action, suit, or proceeding may be advanced by the Institute to the, officer, director, or employee, or their legal counsel prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by the, officer, director, or employee to repay such amount as shall not ultimately be determined to be payable to them hereunder.
4. The rights of indemnification provided hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of other rights to which any such, officer, director, or employee now or hereinafter may be entitled, shall continue to a person who has ceased to be a, officer, director, or employee, and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs and legal representatives.
