APPLYING APPLICABLE STANDARDS

Identifying and applying applicable construction-related accessibility standards to a project in the design phase or to an existing facility to determine compliance can sometimes be tricky.

Join a group activity where we will present complex exercises to sharpen your skills in identifying and applying applicable standards.

SPEAKER: Ida Clair, AIA, LEED AP, CASp
Principal Architect
DSA Headquarters in Access Codes and Standards Unit

- Twenty-six years of experience as an architect in private practice
- Certified Access Specialist since 2009, CASp-045
- Responsible for regulation, policy, and interpretation development for DSA's Access Code and Policy section
- Responsible for planning and oversight of the Fire and Life Safety Program and High Performance Section
- Responsible for technical oversight of the Certified Access Specialist Program
- Responsible for CASp Examination development
- Founding member of the Certified Access Specialist Institute
- Director, AIA Central Valley